Conversations

It was said of St. Dominic that he came to the idea of the Dominicans in the course of a conversation : the time he spent late into the night talking with an inn-keeper, and in the thrust and parry of discussion, he came to clarity about the way forward ...

Here in Ennismore, we have weekly 'conversations' on all kinds of topics, from politics to religion, from art to social issues, and from so much in between ...

Each conversation has a 45-minute input, followed by an open floor, and finishing with a cup of tea, where indeed the chat can go on - but closing (unlike with Dominic's innkeeper) before 9.30.

Everyone is welcome, just come along for 7.30 on any Monday evening.
